Michal Mucha

FULL-STACK DEVELOPER · SOFTWARE ENGINEERING STUDENT

Full-stack developer specializing in Next.js, React and Payload CMS. Currently at Instance Studio, building production sites and client projects, alongside a Software Engineering degree at Saxion. Previously at BOOTIQ, developing front-end and API solutions for mobile apps, e-commerce platforms and payment integrations for clients including DPD and Rezztek. Coding since 13, still driven by the same habit of taking things apart to see how they work. Member of Mensa Slovensko.
